pampered chef 45

We believe the best moments of the day happen between bites.

It's in those little pauses—around the dinner table, during snack time, or while cooking together—that real connection happens.

Back in 1980, I was looking for a way to support my family without missing the moments that mattered. The flexible, meaningful work I was searching for didn't exist...so I created it. I walked into my first cooking party with a few products I believed in, a lot of nerves, and hope that I could make a difference. That one small step turned into something so much bigger: Pampered Chef.

Today, 45 years later, we're still about real food, real moments, and real opportunity. Whether you're looking for mealtime inspiration or a meaningful way to earn income on your own terms, there's a place for you here.

I invite you to explore, share, and dream big with us. Because the best things in life often start in the kitchen—and sometimes with a simple "yes."

Warmly,

Doris
